Terms and Conditions. Ability Martial Arts Association (hereafter referred to as “AMAA” is insured under Hiscox Insurance Company Limited as a recognised Martial arts Governing Body and provider for its members of Public Liability Insurance (hereafter referred to as “the policy”: example wording opposite. The AMAA on application for cover from you the “individual coach” on receipt of payment will cover you from the date of application or a chosen date thereafter under the agreed insurance policy from Hiscox up to a limit of £10,000,000 (see “Hiscox Policy” for details.) AMAA is my chosen “governing body” and as a member I agree to being a careful and cognisant Coach showing a caring attitude and respect for my fellow members, my students and the general public. It is my responsibility to look after my school, club meeting or training areas when we are present, safeguard against injury or abuse and generally maintain as high standards as is possible and take all necessary precautions when training with weapons be they wooden, plastic, alloy or live blades. In this respect I acknowledge that AMAA is not responsible for my behaviour but that they may expect from me a code of ethics befitting of any high quality Martial arts Instructor with excellent values and moral fortitude. The AMAA cannot and will not be held responsible for reckless behaviour, assault physical or sexual, mental abuse, libel or slander, defective goods knowingly sold or any other problems caused by an insured member of the “association” known as AMAA. The AMAA reserves the right to discontinue membership of anyone found to be in breach of these terms and conditions should any breach appear to be a flagrant disregard for either AMAA, the public or members of the individual’s own school or club.
